

Keri Leone

PhD(c), MS, RD, CDCES | United States

Senior Medical Director, Global Medical Affairs. Dexcom, San Diego, California

dexcom

PERSONALISED GUIDANCE powerful results*

Dr. Leone has over 25 years experience in the chronic disease management of diabetes and cardiovascular disease at Kaiser Permanente, Animas Corporation and Dexcom with clinical management and Medical Affairs roles in diabetes pharmaceutical and medical device industry. She has over 15 years experience in building, growing and leading international commercial clinical and/or medical affairs teams at Dexcom, Inc. and currently leads strategic domestic and international medical affairs at Dexcom Inc. for continuous glucose monitoring and managing a Medical Affairs Team focusing on medical education & communications, medical operations, evidence strategy and real-world evidence and strategic stakeholder engagement. Dr. Leone maintains her clinical credentials as a Registered Dietitian and Certified Diabetes Care & Education Specialist and her academic degrees include a Masters Degree in Nutrition & Health Education and a PhD in Organizational Development and Leadership. Dr. Leone is a national and international speaker and subject matter expert on diabetes technology and application of continuous glucose management in clinical practice.

*Results with Dexcom CGM have been proven in over 70 clinical studies, data available on clinicaltrials.gov. Dexcom Data on File, 2026.