

Professor Partha Kar

United Kingdom

Consultant in Diabetes & Endocrinology at Portsmouth Hospitals NHS Trust

Professor Partha Kar works in the NHS, UK as a Consultant in Diabetes & Endocrinology at Portsmouth Hospitals NHS Trust. He has been national lead for Type 1 Diabetes in the NHS since 2016.

In his NHS England role -over the last decade, he has spearheaded efforts that establish the NHS as a global leader in access to technology for people with Type 1 Diabetes- with one of the highest uptake in CGM and HCL
This has resulted in nationwide improvements in HbA1c levels and reductions in DKA and hypo admissions among T1D patients. He is a notable user of social media in diabetes care and writes a monthly blog for the British Medical Journal, along with hosting a YouTube channel called 'Kar- Mic'.

He was awarded an OBE for services to Diabetes care in 2021 - and over the last few years - has been working with Breakthrough T1D with a specific focus on improving Type 1 Diabetes care in India.
